

The 3 pillars of the educcare concept for raising and educating children

The 3 pillars of the educcare concept for raising and educating children

“A child is full of potential” Let’s discover this together!

The 3 pillars of the educcare concept for raising and educating children

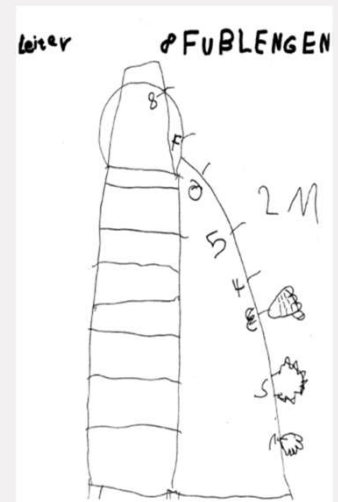

- A house where every child feels safe and secure
- A house for diversity on an equal basis and individual learning
- A house where parents are accepted as educational partners and taken seriously
- A house that welcomes you!

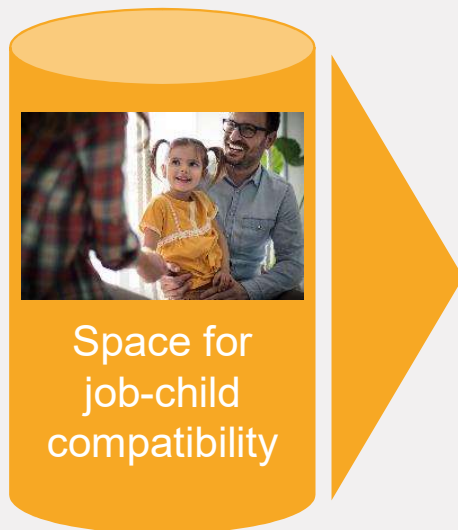

The 3 pillars of the educcare concept for raising and educating children

- A place for researchers, inventors, explorers, poets, musicians, painters, word acrobats, scientists
- A place for strengthening individual interests and talents
- A place of mutual respect, acceptance and support
- A place of participation and co-determination
- A place of orientation and of role models
- A place of learning and joy
- A place of adventure with lots of fun

The 3 pillars of the educcare concept for raising and educating children

- Space for adjustable childcare allocation
- Space for emergency care
- Space for trust and reliability